Take a data sheet?

Ring an AE? Ring to everyone?

On hold experience – can it jump back into call to say we are getting an agent and thanks for your patience.

Transfer to VA ring group first, if not available send to account executives

Calling for Specific agent/extension

Transfer to agent requested unless Rachel Moreno, or Brad

If calling for Rachel M or Brad ask “Are you calling about a new policy or existing policy?” If existing policy transfer to account executive instead. “It looks like your account manager is actually XXX, let me see if they are available.”

*Might get pushback will probably need to explain that Rachel’s role has changed and she focuses on new business.

Calls for specific agent: Rachel
Which one, we have two?
Is this regarding a new quote or an existing policy

If agent not available, offer voicemail transfer. –
Clients may say they only need to make a payment or anyone can help them in this case we probably have to circle back to gather client info step.
Payments can go to VAs, coverage questions need to go to account executive.

Claims

I'm so sorry to hear that. Let me get you over to our team.

After Hours:

I'm so sorry to hear that. Our team is not currently in the office but you can find your carriers' claim number on your policy documents. I can help get you to the claims department with your carrier if you don't have access to your documents. Do you know your carrier's name?

Can we give her a list of company claims numbers she can provide?

Directory:

- For Commercial Lines the alphabet split goes by first letter of the business name with 2 exceptions.
 - “The”
 - “Law office/offices of...”
 - In those 2 cases the next word in the business name is used. Example “Law Offices of Harry Levine” would be routed under H.
- Jason and Fred should not be an option. If they want to talk to either of them they must speak with a live person first.
- PL: Sales Agents are New Business Quotes, Account Executives are current client with existing policies
- CL: Account Executives handle both new quotes and existing policies.
